The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a series of chords and single notes, with a dynamic marking of fz (forzando) above the first few notes.

The second system of music includes the lyrics "per ch'ella fida ancor" written in a cursive hand below the treble staff. The notation continues with notes and rests in both staves.

The third system of music shows a continuation of the piece. The upper staff has several whole rests, while the lower staff is filled with chords and some moving lines, indicating a more active bass part.

The fourth system of music concludes with a double bar line. The lower staff contains some numerical markings (6, 6, 5, 43) which likely refer to fingerings or specific notes.

Volti presto.

The bottom of the page features four empty musical staves, arranged in two pairs, which are not filled with any notation.

Recitativo.

This page contains a handwritten musical score for a recitative piece. The score is organized into six systems, each consisting of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staves feature a melodic line with various note values, including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, often with slurs and ties. The bass staves provide a harmonic accompaniment, primarily using whole and half notes. Each system is separated by a double slash (//) on the left side of the bass staff. The paper shows signs of age, with some staining and discoloration.

Handwritten musical notation on two staves. The top staff features a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bottom staff features a bass clef and contains a few whole notes. Both staves end with a double bar line and a decorative flourish.

Ten blank musical staves, each consisting of five horizontal lines, arranged vertically on the page.
