IMPORTANT

The copying of either the separate parts, or the entire Vocal or Piano Score of this Composition by any process whatsoever, as also the orchestrating of any one or more numbers, or of the entire work, is forbidden and subject to penalties provided for by the Copyright Law of the United States of North America, in force July 1, 1909.

Right for public performance must be obtained from the publishers, and will only be granted when a sufficient number of copies of the vocal score (i. e., one for each soloist and every member of the chorus taking part in the performance) are bought. The right of performance will not be granted in cases where copies of the vocal score, or orchestration, or both, are loaned or hired from a third party, or where copies are purchased from a chorus or society having previously used same, or from a dealer or library offering such used copies for sale.

For the public presentation of this operetta permission in writing must be obtained from the publishers or from their representatives, if performance is to be given in a foreign country.

A fee for performance will not be exacted from amateur organizations, church choirs, etc., provided requirement otherwise (i. e., the purchase of the requisite number of copies of the vocal score) has been lived up to.

Stock or other professional companies are warned not to perform this operetta, unless consent for so doing, and the authorizing of such performance has been granted in writing by the publishers.

Sole proprietors for all countries.
